13. INSURANCE

13.1 All boats must have at least Third Party Liability Insurance valid for the duration of the Regatta.

14. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY

14.1 RRS 3 states: ‘The responsibility for a boat’s decision to participate in a race or to continue to race is hers alone.’ By participating in this event each competitor agrees and acknowledges that sailing is a potentially dangerous activity with inherent risks. These risks include strong winds and rough seas, sudden changes in weather, failure of equipment, boat handling errors, poor seamanship by other boats, loss of balance on an unstable platform and fatigue resulting in increased risk of injury. Inherent in the sport of sailing is the risk of permanent, catastrophic injury or death by drowning, trauma, hypothermia or other causes. The organising authority and its affiliates will not accept any liability for material damage or personal injury, or death sustained in conjunction with or prior to, during, or after the regatta.

14.2 The COVID-19 global pandemic presents new challenges to all event organisers and an increased need for additional safety measures for all participants. Our organising authority intends to follow all applicable governmental and legal requirements and WHO standards, which may require postponement or cancellation of the event due to circumstances beyond their control. It is also up to each individual participant (skipper, crew, guest, etc.) to act responsibly and within their own comfort range when choosing whether and how to participate in this event. The organising authority strongly recommends all participants take appropriate health precautions. The organising authority makes no assessment or warranty of each team’s preparedness or safety.

14.3 Skippers must draw the attention of their crew to this disclaimer before the start of racing.

15. PHOTOGRAPHIC AND MEDIA RIGHTS

Competitors grant the organising authority the unrestricted right and permission to use their name and/or image for any text, photograph or video footage of either themselves or the boat they are sailing during the event to be published or broadcast in any media whatsoever (including but not limited to press and TV advertisements or internet), for either editorial or advertising purposes or to be used in press information.
